

GRINSTEAD'S SPELLER IN LIMELIGHT

Louisville Times' Editorial Discusses Bood Adopted For Use In School of Kentucky.

The Louisville Times is making an editorial analysis of the new speller adopted for the children of Kentucky, the authors of which are Prof. Wren J. Grinstead, of this city and Col. Phil Grinstead, of Louisville, which is interesting to say the least. Robt. W. Eingham, who now owns the Times and Courier-Journal, is conducting them with the sole idea of being of some benefit and good to the people of Kentucky, and what his papers say on questions of public moment, like the adoption of school books for children of Kentucky, are bound to carry weight. The Daily Register publishes below its comment upon the Grinstead speller. It will be glad to afford Prof. Grinstead all the space he desires, if he should care to comment upon the Times' editorial. The Times said:

More About Spellers
"At a great expense and after labor of the most stupendous character," as the circus press-agents say, The Times has obtained a copy of "A Manual of Spelling for Elementary Schools," the educational work by Philip W. and Wren Jones Grinstead, designed by the Governor and the state Text-Book Commission to guide small Kentuckians through the mazes of orthography. Owing, perhaps to the extreme modesty of its authors, it was not easy to lay hand upon a copy of this epochal work, but now the little greenbacked volume, bearing upon its cover the imprint of a spray of goldenrod and of the equally golden Transylvania Book Company, lies upon the editorial desk.

Glancing through this book, The Times finds thirty-two pages filled with what are educational verities and one hundred and ninety-two pages perfectly blank. These are the pages which the kindly commission took on trust, knowing by the reputation of Phil and Wren that they would later be filled with pearls of philology and etymology. Inspection of the work has not, however, lessened The Times' admiration for its own speller, of which an incomplete version was given to an eager public the other day; in fact The Times has determined to offer its great work for sixteen cents a copy, the price of the State speller for which that of Phil and Wren was substituted at twenty-two cents and a half. And only in The Times speller can you find the following words spelled in the following way: Governor, P-a-r-t-d-o-n; school-children, g-o-o-t-s; text-books, j-o-k-e-s.

It is difficult for a layman like the Times, unskilled in pedagogy, to attempt to criticize a work acceptable to the State Text-Book Commission, indorsed by a prince of pediatrics like William F. Klair, printed by a company headed by Thomas A. Combs, and prepared by a Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy—for such, it appears, is Wren Jones Grinstead—and by a Fellow of Politics like Philip W. Grinstead. But, having a speller of its own to propose and being professionally jealous, The Times ventures to point out that to ask children to "divide the following words into syllables," as our rivals do on page 44, is to say the least kidding the kids:

Bade, knelt, waist, knead, boughs, score, rough, tough, pierce, eighth, twelfth, steak.
And, as on page 65, to ask 4th grade children to inform the teacher what are the other two English words beside "coercion" and "auspicion" ending in "cion" is to presuppose that the little dears, like the compilers, have memorized the dictionary. But the authors, just to prove that they have not memorized the dictionary, misuse the obsolete word "lief," on page 178.

The Times expresses the hope that when a child in the fifth grade is urged to suppress missing letter in "lumba go," in fenza, apool exy and typh old," he would at once know that the printer had failed to leave out any see page 150, but it inclines to the belief that the fifth-grader would become promptly bewildered.

There are many more errors in this incomplete and erudite speller for children from 8 to 12 than even the Latin and Anglo-Saxon vocabularies included in it do not outweigh. But the important fact is that this and five and one-half other subjects in the Kentucky elementary schools were changed outright by the Commission; that of these six and one-half subjects one and one-half were changed in price and that seventy-two and one-half per cent of all the school subjects were changed in some way, while twenty-seven and one-half per cent were unchanged.

The whole business needs the airing it is going to get.

RICHARD FOSTER MARRIES ENGLISH GIRL

Richard Foster, son of Mrs. Lizzie Foster, walked in on his mother and family last night with the news that he had married while with the Barrow Unit in England. This came as quite a pleasant surprise to his many friends, as no intimation whatever had been given of the marriage previous to his arrival home. The young lady whose name was Miss Elsie Wones, lives in Aylsham, Norfolk, Co., England and will arrive in this country in the middle of May, and Richard will go to New York to meet her upon her arrival and will come to Richmond where they intend to make their future home.

Young Foster says the English girls made quite a hit with the members of his unit as besides himself there were four other benedicts during their stay in Aylsham but they were unable to bring their blushing brides with them as passage was not allowed to women folks on the boat they came home on.

RICHMOND LUMBER CO. WINS CASE IN COURT

The Richmond Lumber Company sued M. Wides in Judge W. K. Price's court Monday afternoon for possession of a storeroom on East Main street, the plaintiff claiming that Wides was forcibly retaining the storeroom, after being notified to vacate, and in its petition the lumber company prayed damages to the amount of $75. In his claim, Mr. Soper, of the lumber company, stated that he had only rented the storeroom to Mr. Wides for a period of 30 days and that at the end of that time, which was April 15th, Mr. Wides had failed to move. Wides, in answering the suit, claimed he had rented the room for no definite time and that he could see no just reason why he should be forced to move out on the short notice given by Soper. The case was tried before a jury and it found for the plaintiff.

GERMANY BOWS TO ULTIMATUM

Will Send "Big Guns" To Peace Conference—Adriatic Problem Unsolved.

(By Associated Press)
Having bowed to a virtual ultimatum of the entente not to send "mere messengers," to the peace conference at Versailles and agreeing to send a delegation having full power to negotiate the peace treaty, Germany is now ready to submit a call for plebiscite on the treaty as soon as it is completed, according to Berlin reports. The German cabinet, it is said, desires to avoid responsibility, either in refusing or accepting the terms and will submit them to the people who, it is believed, will refuse to sanction them unless negotiations of the details are agreed upon.

Thus if an indemnity is fixed, Germany cannot hope to dispute the total, but would urge that experts be sent to discuss ways and means of payment.

With the question of the German delegation out of the way, which seemed for a time to threaten grave complications, the Italian question again becomes a source of much concern at Paris.

PRESIDENT TAKES FIRM STAND

(By Associated Press)
Washington, April 22—Bulletin—A confidential cablegram from Paris today advised administration officials that in considering the peace conference problems, such as Italy's Adriatic claims and the question of an alliance to protect France from future aggression, President Wilson would take no action which might in the slightest degree jeopardize the League of Nations or conflict with fundamental principles.

The message within was in reply to a cablegram, asking the President's attitude toward a secret alliance, which, according to the Paris newspapers, is contemplated as a special defensive pact to be entered into by France, Great Britain and the United States. The outcome of the apparent deadlock over Italy's Adriatic claims is awaited in official quarters here with evident anxiety. Press dispatches picture the situation as serious.

WILSON AGAINST SECRET TREATY OF LONDON.

Paris, April 21.—The Council of Four continued its sessions at the "White House" beginning at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

The Italian Premier, Vittorio Orlando and the Italian Foreign Minister, Baron Sonnino, were present and made it known that the opening of the Italian parliament on Wednesday has necessitated their leaving Paris Monday, with definite knowledge of what is going to be done.

Baron Sonnino continued to occupy the extreme position, insisting upon the integral fulfillment of the secret treaty of London, giving to Italy the entire Dalmatian coast and islands, and also claiming the city of Fiume without internationalization or division with the Jugo-Slavs.

Premier Orlando was rather more conciliating though a telegram which he had received from the heads of the Italian army declared that the entire army was behind him in upholding Italy's aspirations.

Captain Tozzi, of Premier Orlando's staff, said the telegram was in effect an ultimatum and disclosed how universal and deep-rooted was the Italian determination to secure adequate protection on the Eastern Adriatic Coast.

He added that if these rights were not recognized Italy undoubtedly would adopt her own course, without reference to the conference, and occupy the regions to which she considered herself entitled.

President Wilson's position was said to be equally determined against any recognition of the secret treaty of London. Reports of a compromise on the basis of the Italians getting the Italian quarters of Fiume and the Jugo-Slavs getting their districts were not confirmed, as it was said this was the plan put forward to the Italians, but not accepted.

FLORIDA GETS ANGUS HERD

The famous Creswell herd of purebred Abredeem-Angus cattle is going from Texas to Florida. Mr. Creswell is combining business with philanthropy in making this cattle deal, which is the biggest pure-bred transaction in the history of the South and the largest in the entire country for some time. He will sell to the breeders over Florida about 80 per cent of the herd breeding the open heifer to Defender of Tierra Alta, the grand champion bull recently bought of Sam H. Hill, and on, of Christoval, Texas. Only the pick of the Creswell herd will be brought to Florida giving that State the greatest start with this breed of any of the southern group. While Mr. Logan breeds both Abredeem-Angus and Herefords like so many other southern planters who have tried both breeds, he has demonstrated that for the South the "Doddie" is the best beef maker of them all. He therefore chose the above method of getting Florida quickly on the map as a beef cattle state, and expects that in another ten years Florida beefsteaks will be as well known at markets as its grape fruit, winter resorts, and big game raising.

Here's A Gentle Laxative For Elderly People

A daily free movement of the bowels becomes a serious problem as you step from middle-life into old age, and much dependence can no longer be placed on nature herself. The bowels find artificial aid necessary.

The stronger the physic, as old people soon learn, the greater the contraction of the bowels thereafter, and so the wise purposely avoid salt waters, pills and other harsh purgatives. Many have learned to place absolute reliance on the gentle but positive action of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

It produces an agreeable movement as nearly natural and free as high pharmaceutical skill can make it. Thousands use it regularly, in the small dose prescribed, and keep themselves in fine health and good cheer, and entirely free from constipation.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

PRICE AS ALWAYS

In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the War, by sacrificing profits and absorbing war taxes we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 25 years. Two sizes—50c and $1.00.

"Satisfy"

The one thing you've always wished a cigarette would do—SATISFY.

Chesterfields do it. They touch the "smoke-spot." They let you know you're smoking. They satisfy.

Yet, they are mild!

That's some combination for a cigarette to "put across."

But Chesterfields do it!

It's the blend, a new blend of pure Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—and the blend can't be copied.

Try Chesterfields—today.

BACK LIKE A BOARD? IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

There's no use suffering from the awful agony of lame back. Don't wait till it "passes off." It only comes back. Find the cause and stop it. Pained conditions of kidneys are usually indicated by stiff lame backs and other wrenching pains, which are nature's signals for help!

Here's the remedy. When you feel the first twinges of pain or experience any of these symptoms, get busy at once. Go to your druggist and get a box of the pure, original GOLD MEDAL Haaren Oil Capsules, imported fresh every month from the laboratories in Haaren, Holland. Pleasant and easy to take, they instantly attack the poisonous germs clogging your system and bring quick relief.

For over two hundred years they have been helping the sick. Why not try them? Sold everywhere by reliable druggists in sealed packages. Three sizes. Money back if they do not help you. Ask for "GOLD MEDAL" and be sure the name "GOLD MEDAL" is on the box.

Suffering Described As Torture
Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks."

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Thedford's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Thedford's Black-Draught."

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The services at the First Christian church Sunday morning were unusually impressive. The decorating committee, composed of Mrs. Stockton, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Hagan and Mrs. Burnam, had made the auditorium a real "thing of beauty," the platform and choir loft were a mass of green and white blossoms—a fit setting for the service that followed.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Pickels, gave one of the most delightful and beautifully rendered song services ever held in the church. From the opening hymn "Christ is Risen," through Miss Miriam Noland's solo, sung with great depth and feeling; the solo sung by Mr. W. L. Arnold, with a new richness and fullness in the voice we love, because of the spirit back of it, and the special parts taken with exquisite feeling by Mrs. Perry, Miss Mary Louise Deatherage and Miss Carrie Allman, to the closing solo sung by Miss Alice Metcalf, tenderly and sweetly as she always sings; the audience was held under the spell of the music and prepared spiritually for the wonderful Easter message which was brought by Dr. Carpenter.

The Bible lesson of the "Empty Tomb," from which the Savior had risen, of Mary Magdalene coming at the early dawn, followed by Peter and John, the beloved disciple, was brought vividly before his hearers by the speaker. The sermon which followed, of the risen Christ, who came to bring peace, comfort and joy to a world of unrest, burdened with sorrow, was one of the most soul-stirring of many masterly discourses heard from Dr. Carpenter. Those who heard him were blessed in the rearing. The church and the community are fortunate, indeed, in having this man of consecrated spirit and broad vision with us.—Contributed.

The telephone strike which had crippled New England service was settled yesterday.
